..... PETITIONERS

AND

The State of Andhra Pradesh,

Rep. by its Secretary,
Secretariat Buildings, Hyderabad

And 5 others

.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

Seeking a Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondents 4 and 5 in making visits and threatening the petitioners at their residence, as illegal and arbitrary, the present writ petition is filed.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader for Home.

On instructions, the learned Government Pleader for Home submits that there are family disputes in between the 6th respondent and her husband and in that connection criminal and civil cases are pending. In so far as grievance of the petitioner is concerned, there is no truth in any of the allegations, and the 4th and 5th respondents never visited the residence of the petitioners and threatened them as alleged, and no criminal case is pending against the petitioners.

In view of the submissions made by the learned Government Pleader for Home, I am of the opinion that there is no cause of action warranting the petitioner to file this writ petition, and therefore, the writ petition is not maintainable and liable to be dismissed.

Accordingly, the Writ Petition is dismissed. No order as to costs.
